

APPLY

Get a jump start in the fall of your senior year and include your parents or guardians to help you gather the information you'll need to become a Seattle Promise scholar.

Start the enrollment process by completing these three applications:

- 1 Seattle Promise Application by February 16
- 2 College Admissions by February 16
Apply to:
North Seattle College,
Seattle Central College,
or South Seattle College.
- 3 FAFSA/WASFA Application by April 30
Apply for financial aid and send your information to Seattle Colleges.

WE'RE here to help.

We'll walk you through the applications step by step. See us in a school classroom presentation, sign up for an online workshop with your family, watch one of our videos, or reach out to your high school Outreach Specialist for assistance.

"We make getting to college easy, helping with everything from applying for admissions and financial aid to building your class schedule."

Aurelio Valdez-Barajas,
Seattle Promise Outreach Specialist

PREPARE

Meet peers and register for classes at Readiness Academy. Ease first week nerves at Summer Bridge by meeting instructors and staff.

Attend these required events and build your college success from day one.

- 1 Readiness Academy in May/June
- 2 Summer Bridge in September

"I knew I wanted to go to college. Seattle Promise provided a smart and supportive way to do it."

Fathima Garcia, Seattle Promise Alumna

START AND SUCCEED

Work with your Retention Specialist to choose classes, register, and create an education plan. Meet quarterly to review progress and refine goals.

Launch your college career with strong support.

- 1 Meet with Your Retention Specialist
- 2 Register for Classes

"Chat with us about choosing a degree path, how classes are going, finding an internship, or developing a plan to transfer to university."

Anna Tran, Assistant Director of Retention
