For these examples we are using the view for students at North, but it works exactly the same for students at Central and South.

Click Browse Classes to quickly see all the different subjects and courses offered during a term.

Step 3: To search for a specific class section (day, time, instruction mode, etc), do not click anything and go to Step 8.

Step 4: Click on the displayed term to expand the term dropdown menu. Then, click on the term you want to browse.

Step 5: Click on the subject you want to browse to expand the course list.
